Joseph Kells, independent candidate for Sheriff in Grant county, was assassinated on the streets of Williamstown.

Gov. Simeon E. Baldwin, of Connecticut, at the closing session of the Congressional convention in Kansas City urged the passage of eugenic marriage laws.

A suit attacking the legality of the impeachment of Gov. William Sulzer, of New York, and asking that Gov. Glynn be ousted was filed in the United States Court at New York.

Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia elect Governors to fill vacancies today. Hot fights are on in the two first named, with the results in doubt. The election for Mayor of New York is attracting nation-wide attention.

STRAYED.

From my farm, about two weeks ago, one dark red barrow, weight from 250 to 350 pounds. Will pay reasonable amount for information or his return. J. M. ADAMS,

Easily Explained.

Grinn—"What's happened to disturb the friendship between Nupop and Cutup? Each one says the other is an intolerable bore." Barrett—"Nupop's recently become the father of a first-born and Cutup's just had a surgical operation."

"I have been somewhat costive but Doan's Regulets give just the result I desire. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."— Geo. B. Kransse, Atoms, Pa.—Adv-tisement.

Finally Got Moved.

"Do you think the motor-car has come to stay?" asked one man of his neighbor. "Well," replied the other, "there was one out in front of my house the other day which I thought had; but they got a horse, after a while, and towed it home."

PRECIOUS STONES IN DEMAND

From Earliest Times They Have Been Accorded High Esteem and Admiration.

In robberies now being reported from day to day there is reminder of expenditures that defy the high cost of living, and of a trade that prospers however others may languish. As civilization grows more complex and populations multiply, new sources of precious stones are sought out and fresh values utilized.
 To the old vocabulary unfamiliar names are being added. We know all about sapphires, rubies and em-eralds, about the beryl, the garnet, the topaz, the chrysoprase and the tourmaline. How many of us could identify the californite, the vesu-vianite, the benoitite, or pick out from other gems genuine bits of viridite, ametrine, uhlite and chlor-uhlite? Yet the use of all these for decorative purposes is on the increase; in the United States alone it has reached an output value of over half a million dollars.

Turn to the most ancient of precious stones, the diamond. Legend assures us that it was a power to conjure with in the days of the Mahabarata, 5,000 years ago; it flashed out from the breastplate of the Jewish high priest in biblical times. Long before the mines of Golconda turned it out to be cut and polished for the use of Indian potentates the campaigns of Alexander the Great had brought knowledge of it to Europe, and diamonds were already prized by the Romans in the first century of the Christian era. But they were not fairly in use until after the fourteenth. The fuller modern supply began with the discoveries in Brazil 300 years later, and was extended by the discoveries in Australia, Borneo, Java, Singapore and Siam. It culminated toward the later part of the nineteenth century in the epoch-making operations of the African mines, which have already created a new civilization and helped to build up a new empire south of the equator.

CAUSE FOR THANKFULNESS

Staylaight—We're here today and gone tomorrow.

Miss Weereigh—Well, thank goodness, tomorrow will soon be here now

LINKING THE CONTINENTS.

Communication direct by wireless between America and Asia is now an accomplished fact, the United States army signal corps station at Nome, Alaska, having been in nightly communication since July 20 with the Russian station at Anadyr, Siberia, 500 miles west of Nome. For the last six months the signal corps operators at Nome have been trying, under orders from Washington, to establish communication with the Russian stations. A diplomatic agreement will have to be reached before the Nome station could cooperate with Russia for the commercial use of the government-owned station in Alaska.

THE POINT.

"Did that fellow insult you by offering you a drink?"

"Yes, he did."

"But did you swallow the insult?"

A COQUETTE.

"Has pretty Miss Flirting a collecting fad?"

"Yes, and I think it is for collecting engagement rings."

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

He (sarcastically)—I like "the soft pillow of a woman's mind."

She (coldly)—Yes, I suppose it helps you to bolster your mind up

NOT A MONOPOLY.

"It is one of the cruel prerogatives of poverty that pinches people."

"That's nothing. So does a potterman."

Not a Day In Bed.

Gramling, S. C.—In a letter from Gramling, Mrs. Lula Walden says:
 "I was so weak before I began taking Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Since taking it, I do all the house work for my family of nine and have not been in bed a day. Cardiui is the greatest remedy for women, on earth." Weak women need Cardui. It is the ideal women's tonic because it is especially adapted for women's needs. It relieves backache, headache, dragging feelings, and other female misery. Try Cardui. A few doses will show you what it can do for you. It may be just what you want.—Advertisement.

Courteous to the Last.

When on the scaffold Robert Bamford, who was hanged at Nottingham, England, several years ago, politely asked the hangman if he could have more rope. On his request being granted, he endeavored to shake hands with the hangman, but being unable to do so with his pinioned arms he gave him a courtly bow and smile of thanks.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Liked Their Vlands Sweet.

Pineapple chunks and roast beef as a dinner dish sounds like a return to the habits of the forefathers, who always wanted something sweet with their meat. Sir Walter Besant tells how in Tudor days most people's teeth were black on account of their diet. Honey was poured lavishly over the beef and sugar employed to give fillip to the poultry, and even the wine had to be much sweetened to please the palate of the medieval gourmet. To this day Englishmen add current jelly to mutton, apple sauce to pork, and in Germany stewed pears form "the usual trimming" of chicken.

Nearly Every Child Has Worms

Paleness, at times a flushed face, unnatural hunger, picking the nose, great thirst, etc., are indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a reliable, thorough medicine for the removal of all kinds of worms from children and adults. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a pleasant candy form, aids digestion, tones system, over-coming constipation of the liver. Is perfectly safe for even the most delicate children. Kickapoo Worm Killer makes children happy and healthy. 25c. Guaranteed. Try it. Drug

Nothing Really Seems New.

Discovery of a prehistoric Turkish bath in Ireland suggests again the thought that most of the things about which modern civilization boasts are ancient. An automatic machine was in use to supply sacrificial water in an ancient Greek temple. Queen Marie Theresa had an elevator in her house at Luxembourg at least as early as 1777, and an omnibus was running in Paris in 1662. In 1667 Robert Hooke conveyed sounds to a distance by distended wire—telephoned, in fact
